

CHURCH LEADERS CONFERENCE 2014

SPEAKER:

DR THOMAS ASCOL

DATES:

29 + 30 APR + 1 MAY

THEME:

A FAITHFUL PASTOR HIS MENTALITY & SELF-IDENTITY

The man who is called to shepherd the flock of God must learn to think about his life and responsibilities in light of the requirements and priorities for pastors that are revealed in Scripture. A pastor's mindset about himself and his work as well as his self-identity in his work must be shaped by the Word of God in order for him to be productive and to persevere in his labors. This conference will explore these crucial issues in light of the challenges of pastoral ministry in the 21st century.

Pastors, preachers, seminarians as well as elders and deacons will benefit from considering this theme. It could also be helpful for anyone who wants to understand the challenges that pastors face in pastoral ministry.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

DR THOMAS ASCOL

Tom has served as a Pastor of Grace Baptist Church, Cape Coral, Florida since 1986. He received his MDiv and PhD degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth, Texas. His major field of study was Baptist Theology. He has been an adjunct professor for New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in their SW Florida extension and has also taught systematic theology and pastoral theology at Reformed Theological Seminary and the Midwest Center for Theological Studies, respectively. He is also a Teaching Fellow at the Nicole Institute for Baptist Studies at Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida.

Tom serves as the Executive Director of Founders Ministries, an organization committed to reformation and revival in local churches. He edits the Founders Journal, a quarterly theological publication of Founders Ministries, and has written numerous articles for journals and magazines. He is a regular contributor to TableTalk. He has also edited and contributed to several books. Tom regularly preaches and lectures at various conferences throughout the United States and other countries in addition to authoring the Founders Blog and writing for Examiner.com. He also blogs at tomascol.com

Tom enjoys riding motorcycles and, though he currently is "in between bikes," lives with the hope that one day he will have his own Harley. He and Donna have eight children, including 2 sons-in-law. They also have one grandchild.
